

Biography

Vienna Piano Trio

David McCarroll, violin

Clemens Hagen, cello

Stefan Mendl, piano

www.viennapianotrio.com

Long established as one of the world's leading chamber ensembles, and perennially fresh in its artistry, the Vienna Piano Trio was founded in 1988 by the Viennese pianist Stefan Mendl. His partners are the Californian violinist David McCarroll, a member of the trio since 2015, and the Austrian cellist Clemens Hagen, who joined in 2018.

Together, the players embody the ensemble's continuing commitment to bridging the traditions and practice of Europe and America. This philosophy stems from the trio's early years and its mentoring by such ensembles as the Trio di Trieste, Haydn-Trio Wien, Beaux Arts Trio and the Guarneri and LaSalle quartets, and by the violinists Isaac Stern and Jaime Laredo.

Both sustaining and renewing the repertoire for piano trio, the ensemble complements the masterworks of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries with new works, the product of collaborations with such leading contemporary composers as Friedrich Cerha, Georg Friedrich Haas, György Kurtág, Johannes Maria Staud and Jörg Widmann.

Since the 2006-7 season the Vienna Piano Trio has had its own subscription series at the Vienna Konzerthaus and it is a regular visitor to the world's major concert halls (such as Concertgebouw Amsterdam, Palau de la Música Catalana in Barcelona, Konzerthaus Berlin, Wigmore Hall London and Cité de la Musique in Paris) and festivals (such as the Schubertiade Schwarzenberg, Wiener Festwochen, Mozartwoche Salzburg, Grafenegg, Rheingau, Schleswig-Holstein Musik Festival, Flanders, Aix-en-Provence, Prades-Casals, Kuhmo, Princeton Summer and Caramoor).

Engagements in 2018-19 include a concert cycle at Vienna Konzerthaus and a performance at the Schubertiade in Schwarzenberg, while the 2019-20 season will bring an emphasis on Beethoven in a concert series at Amici della Musica Firenze and, in series at the Vienna Konzerthaus and London's Wigmore Hall, the piano trios and string sonatas of Brahms. In 2020 the trio will also make a tour of the USA, visiting Philadelphia, New York, Houston and Los Angeles.

The Vienna Piano Trio's extensive prize-winning discography on the Naxos, Nimbus and MDG labels embraces the complete piano trios of Brahms, Dvořák, Saint-Saëns, Schönberg/

Steuermann, Schubert, Tschaikovsky and Zemlinsky, as well as works by Beethoven, Haydn, Ravel, Schumann and others. The ensemble's recording plans for 2018/19 include the Ravel and Chausson piano trios as well as Beethoven's 'Archduke' and Op. 1 No. 3. The Penguin Guide to Recorded Classical Music has described the ensemble's Schubert as "outstanding in every way ... wonderfully fresh and spring-like ... true chamber-music-making by a beautifully matched team", while its Dvořák led the Washington Post to write of "a rapport that makes the performance feel like a conversation among friends, and a high level of technical precision ... an almost transcendent experience."

David McCarroll plays a 1761 Gagliano violin and Clemens Hagen plays a Stradivari cello from 1698.

2018/2019

This biography is to be reproduced without any changes, omissions or additions, unless expressly authorised by artist management.